

SAYS MRS. SKELLY TOLD HER THAT SKELLY THREW GASOLINE ON HER AND SET FIRE THAT BROUGHT DEATH STORY TOLD BY MRS. LEWIS COMES LIKE THUNDERBOLT MURDER WARRANT ISSUED

Husband Says Wife Was Afire, Coming
From Near The Gasoline Stove

Mrs. T. J. Lewis this morning told the coroner's jury that her daughter, Mrs. Ethel Skelly, told her that her daughter's husband, Frank F. Skelly, told her he was going to murder her, then threw gasoline over her and set fire to it. She said that the daughter told her that the night before Skelly threatened to kill.

A complaint charging F. F. Skelly with murder was sworn to this afternoon by M. J. Taylor, brother-in-law of the dead woman. Skelly will be arrested at the hospital.

Mrs. Lewis' story sent chills of horror through her hearers. She said that on Friday morning last after her daughter had been burned, the daughter told her the story on her promise not to tell it. Mrs. Lewis said she told no one until she was put under oath, one, not even her husband, knew what she would testify to when she went on the stand.

The husband, in bandages from his burns, was on the witness stand. He said he believes his wife tried to fill the gasoline stove while it was burning. After he helped bring her into the house she said to him: "Frank, why did you do it?" and he said: "Ethel, I didn't do it."

The coroner's jury found that Mrs. Ethel Skelly came to her death by "shock and thermic poisoning, as a result of gasoline burns sustained in a manner unknown to the jury, and we recommend that F. F. Skelly be held pending further investigation by the state."

Mrs. Lewis testified that the story told by her daughter was substantially as follows:

Thursday evening Skelly threatened to kill her. The next morning he arose first. When Mrs. Skelly went to the kitchen Skelly was there with a jar of gasoline. He sat on a chair near the table. She asked him what he was going to do. He replied that he was going to murder her. He threw the gasoline over her, held her and struck a match to her. He tried to hold her in the pantry. She broke away by main force and ran from the house. He followed her.

Mrs. Lewis said that her daughter wanted her to keep what she told her secret for fear of the effect upon the two children.

W. H. Bentley testified that he went to the house and examined it. On the pantry floor was a broken fruit jar. Marks of flames showed on the sides of the wall, not near the door.

Skelly was brought to the office of Coroner Smith from the Santa Ana Hospital. His arms and head were in bandages. The man rested upon a couch while he was questioned by Coroner Smith and District Attorney Davis.

He said he was just coming from his bedroom when he heard his wife scream. She was coming from the pantry all ablaze. He seized her skirts, she being ablaze from the waist up, and tried to throw them over her head to smother the flames. He failed. He held her with one hand and tried to get water in a dipper from a bucket on the table. She broke from him like a wild woman and ran from the house. He went to the well and found no bucket. He got over the fence to her. Someone threw him a quilt. His wife had fallen. He threw the quilt over her and put out the fire. He helped carry her to the house. As he stood by the bed she said: "Frank, why did you do it?" He replied: "Ethel, I didn't do it." The doctor assured her he did not do it. He was then put to bed, he also being burned. He thought she had an idea that when he was trying to throw water on her she thought he was throwing gasoline.

Skelly said he found a broken jar on the floor of the pantry but two

Disclosure In Ballinger Case Was a Startler

WASHINGTON, May 12.—In a letter read on the witness stand today by Secretary Ballinger, Attorney General Wickersham admitted that the "summary" of the Glavis charges against Secretary Ballinger, upon which it is supposed President Taft based the exoneration of Ballinger, was written after President Taft's exonerating letter and then antedated. The reference to the Wickersham letter caused Attorney Brandeis, Glavis' counsel, to invite Wickersham to appear as a witness. Chairman Nelson of the investigating committee, stated that Wickersham will appear.

feet from the stove. Mrs. Skelly on other occasions had filled the stove while it was lighted.

On the coroner's jury were M. A. Menges, J. W. Hagg, C. R. Davis, R. M. Dungan, D. G. Cole, L. J. Carden, P. E. Newman, G. W. Liggett, Chas. Ross and G. W. Minter.

THIRTEEN IN RIVER WRECK

"City of Saltillo" Founders in the Mississippi River

ST. LOUIS, May 12.—Thirteen were drowned when the river packet, the City of Saltillo, struck a rock off Glen Park in the Mississippi river last night. The body of Mrs. Isaac Rhea, wife of the president of the Tennessee River Packet Company, was recovered. A panic followed the accident. The crew was unable to lower the boats because of the frantic struggles of the passengers. William R. Barnhart of St. Louis swam to shore three times carrying his mother, his two small sisters and their nurse.

The steamer left St. Louis at 7 o'clock last night bound for Tennessee river points and carried twenty-seven passengers with a crew of twenty-three.

The dead: Mrs. Isaac Rhea, Annie Rhea, S. C. Baker, the purser, Mrs. James Harris, Nashville; Mrs. Archie Patterson and infant son, William J. Pickett of St. Louis; Fowler Post, boat clerk; Lena Wall, Nashville; the head porter, the cabin boy, and two roustabouts.

CHILD DISAPPEARS MAY HAVE BEEN KIDNAPPED

PORTLAND, May 12.—It is believed that Kenneth, the infant son of Tracy Woods, has been kidnapped. Numerous relatives and friends are aiding the police in a search for him. The child was left in a go-cart near a real estate office where an auction was being held. He disappeared mysteriously, with no trace of his whereabouts.

GILLET URGES SPEEDY INVITATION OF NATIONS

States Fair Will be Held Even Without Appropriation
From Congress

WASHINGTON, May 12.—Governor Gillett of California, heading the delegation of Californians, appeared before the foreign affairs committee of the House today, and requested the committee to urge President Taft to invite foreign nations to participate in the San Francisco exposition in 1915. Gillett declares the exposition will be held regardless of whether a Federal appropriation is made or not.

Taft Approves Frisco Fair
President Taft unequivocally endorsed San Francisco as the place for holding the world's international exposition for the celebration and commemoration of the completion of the Panama Canal, last night at the dinner tendered by him to the California delegation in Congress and the delegation of representative citizens sent here to secure the government's endorsement of their 1915 project.

RICH HAUL MADE IN STREET CAR HOLD-UP

SEATTLE, May 12.—Three men boarded a street car this morning and lined up the passengers and crew. They secured between $1500 and $2000. E. G. Dery, a saloon man, lost $1200 in money and jewelry. One robber seized the controller and ran the car to Edmonds suburb where it is believed the bandits boarded a freight train.

Fight Is Brewing Over Tariff Appropriation

WASHINGTON, May 12.—A new alignment of forces in Congress was threatened when the clause providing for an appropriation of $250,000 to enable the new tariff board to ascertain the difference in cost of production at home and abroad, contained in the sundry civil appropriation bill, is discussed in the House.

It is believed the President and the insurgents will be united in support of the clause, and the regulars will be opposed, because they believe the plan will result in a tariff revision within two years.

Dalzell and Payne are leading the regulars against the plan, which they believe is a revival of Bever-

BITTER WORDS IN CLOSING OF TRIAL

Attorneys Rebuked in Hyde Case For Acrimonious Exchanges

KANSAS CITY, May 12.—The closing hours of the Dr. Hyde trial were marked by displays of great bitterness between the attorneys. The exchanges were so acrimonious that Judge Lathshaw was compelled to caution the offenders. Attorney Walsh began his closing argument for the defense today. He will be followed by two speakers for the defense and two for the prosecution before Judge Lathshaw charges the jury.

Attorney Walsh's arguments for the defense brought tears to the eyes of Juror Kohn. The attorney said: "How many men are imprisoned to day, unjustly, on circumstantial evidence!" It became known that Kohn's son is in prison, convicted on circumstantial evidence.

Walsh declared that Dr. Vaughn, a prosecution witness, had been selected as the executioner of Hyde. He accused the prosecution of dishonesty, unfairness and prejudice, say.

"They show an awful zeal to strangle Dr. Hyde and to appease their instincts for prosecution."

MEN PERISHED BY FIRE OR ELSE BY DROWNING

Flames Still Rage and Work of Rescue Prevented—Scenes of Anguish

WHITEHAVEN, Eng., May 12.—All hope of rescuing the 137 miners entombed in the Wellington coal mine has been abandoned, as it is certain they have perished.

The fire which followed the explosion is still raging and the rescuers are unable to enter the mine. It will be several days before the bodies can be recovered. Relatives are grouped at the mine entrance imploring the officials to send rescuers into the mine.

Frightful Disaster

WHITEHAVEN, Eng., May 12.—Scores of miners were imprisoned and it is believed they were killed, as a result of a terrific explosion in the Wellington coal mines. Fire followed the explosion and it is estimated 137 miners were caught alive in the burning pits.

Owing to the intense heat and the presence of explosives the mine rescuers were unable to begin work promptly. The mine officials have admitted that the loss of life is probably heavy. The mines are the property of Earl Lonsdale.

It is feared that many miners were drowned in the works which extend four miles beneath the Irish sea. It is reported the explosion permitted the waters to enter the tunnels.

CHAIRMAN OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS DIED AT NEEDLES LAST NIGHT AT 9

Dr. David A. MacMullen, for seven years and four months past chairman of the Board of Supervisors of Orange county, died at 9 o'clock last night, at Needles, Cal., as the result of pneumonia.

The flag on the courthouse today was at half-mast as a mark of respect and a mark of sorrow at the death of the official.

For years Dr. MacMullen has battled with lung trouble. Recently he suffered a severe attack, from which he seemed to be on the road to recovery when on last Friday he was taken to Needles for the benefit of his health. On Tuesday he was suddenly taken worse with pneumonia, and last night at 9 o'clock he died.

Dr. MacMullen was born August 18, 1863, at Albany, N. Y. He was licensed to practice dentistry in California on March 12, 1892. He lived at Oakland a number of years, and while there served as a member of the Board of Education. He established a dental office at Orange. About nine years ago he gave up his practice.

Seven years ago last November he was elected supervisor, and was made chairman of the Board of Supervisors, which position he held throughout his service on the board. His last official act was the signing of the Randolph school district bonds.

Dr. MacMullen was a strong, active Republican, and a leader in his party. He was state central committeeman from Orange county, and county central committeeman from Olive precinct, where he lived.

He was a man of admirable energy, a good friend, and always true to his friends and to his colors. He was a man with many friends, and to him they were loyal.

Dr. MacMullen leaves a widow, Nanette H., a daughter, Mrs. William H. Nelson of Los Angeles, and a son, Gus, of Olive. The body will arrive at Orange tomorrow morning. The funeral will be held Saturday, the hour not yet having been set.

Economic Value of Good Roads

Paper Read at Tustin Farmer's Institute, May 11, by Dr. G. H. Dobson

Every one and everything tend to follow the lines of least resistance.

In Orange county we have the most compact, productive, attractive and agreeable tract of 734 square miles in the whole grand state of California, if not in the world. Its inhabitants are intellectual, moral and industrious. I say these things because they are true, and because in comparing conditions, a reflection might be inferred where none is intended.

All the great races of antiquity, which, in their times, have ruled the world, have been "Good Road" builders, and some of the highways built by these ancient peoples exist today, after the wear of twenty centuries, in better condition than many modern roads after a decade of use. The builders of Egypt, Babylonia, Carthage and Rome built for the coming generations; we build for present use only, and fail of success even in that attempt. Two thousand years before our era, the streets of the great city of Babylon were paved, asphaltum being used to cement the blocks instead of mortar. Under Roman domination, thirteen thousand miles of roads were constructed in Gaul, and twenty-five hundred miles in Brittany. With the decadence of the Roman people came the decline in road-building, and the Dark Ages were accompanied by dark and devious ways.

In England the first road law was enacted in 1285, and in 1346 a toll law was passed, providing for the repair of highways. Since that time there have been enacted, both in England and the United States, various and sundry road laws, many of which were as ridiculous as they were unprofitable. Even today, in our country, confusion is further confounded by the fact that every state has its own road laws, some of which to say the least, are peculiar. We, in California, which is classed as a good roads state, now have a law which enables us to do things; therefore if we do not do things, we alone are to blame. This law is not a perfect one, but there never has been a perfect road law; yet, even under the laws that have been enacted, other countries have accomplished decisive and permanent results, and we may do so, if we will.

Farming is the mainstay of our country; and farming cannot be made profitable or attractive without good roads. We may have the most fertile soil, the best markets, the finest climate, the best schools and churches; but with bad roads, the crops from the farm cannot be readily taken to the markets, and the people cannot easily reach the schools and churches, and so are partially deprived of social intercourse, and obliged to live a more isolated life.

To sustain my statements I will submit the following table of statistics of the proportionate number of illiterates, born of native parents. The percentage column contains the percentage of all illiterates, made on that basis.

Arkansas — Population, 1,311,564; illiterates, 74,828; percentage of illiterates, 5.70; percentage of improved roads, 0.64.

Connecticut — Population, 908,420; illiterates, 1,953; percentage of illiterates, 0.21; percentage of good roads, 16.75.

Massachusetts — Population, 2,805,346; illiterates, 3,912; percentage of illiterates, 0.14; percentage of good roads, 45.89.

Mississippi — Population, 1,551,270; illiterates, 35,432; percentage of illiterates, 2.28; percentage of good roads, 0.38.

Missouri — Population, 3,106,665; illiterates, 89,203; percentage of illiterates, 2.87; percentage of good roads, 2.52.

New Jersey — Population, 1,883,669; illiterates, 13,511; percentage of illiterates, 0.72; percentage of good roads, 16.32.

North Carolina — Population, 1,893,

810; illiterates, 175,325; percentage of illiterates, 9.26; percentage of good roads, 2.52.

Rhode Island — Population, 828,556; illiterates, 1,196; percentage of illiterates, 0.28; percentage of good roads, 43.26.

Good road states—Percentage of illiterates, 0.34; percentage of good roads, 30.55.

In which category do you think Orange county belongs? If we are not in the illiterate class, we ought to take in our sign.

I do not pretend to assert that the existence of good roads or bad roads is the only factor concerned with literacy or illiteracy, but certainly it is one of the factors. The efficiency of our public schools depend upon the educational standard set up for them, but the ability of the pupils to attend them depends largely upon the condition of the roads; and if there be small attendance, there will be less

Nursing Mothers and Over-burdened Women

In all stations of life, whose vigor and vitality may have been undermined and broken down by over-work, exacting social duties, the too frequent bearing of children, or other causes, will find in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription the most potent, invigorating restorative strength-giver ever devised for their special benefit. Nursing mothers will find it especially valuable in sustaining their strength and promoting an abundant nourishment for the child. Expectant mothers too will find it a priceless help to prepare the system for baby's coming and rendering the ordeal comparatively painless. It can do no harm in any state, or condition of the female system.

Delicate, nervous, weak women, who suffer from frequent headaches, backache, dragging-down distress low down in the abdomen, or from painful or irregular monthly periods, gnawing or disquieting sensation in stomach, dizzy or faint spells, see imaginary specks or spots floating before eyes, have disagreeable, pelvic catarrhal drain, prolapsus, anteversion or retroversion, or other displacements of womanly organs from weakness of parts will, whether they experience many or only a few of the above symptoms, find relief and a permanent cure by using faithfully and fairly persistently Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This world-famous specific for woman's weaknesses and peculiar ailments is a pure glyceric extract of the choicest native medicinal roots without a drop of alcohol in its make-up. All its ingredients printed in plain English on its bottle wrapper and attested under oath. Dr. Pierce thus invites the fullest investigation of his formula knowing that it will be found to contain only the best agents known to the most advanced medical science of all the different schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments.

If you want to know more about the composition and professional endorsement of the "Favorite Prescription," send postal card request to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his free booklet "Treating of same."

You can't afford to accept as a substitute for this remedy of known composition a secret nostrum of unknown composition. Don't do it.

efficiency. The same may be said of the churches.

It is a fact, too, that road conditions bear a relation to the public health. Many persons (especially infants) have died for want of prompt medical treatment, which has been rendered impossible or difficult on account of the bad state of the roads. Every physician is an advocate of good roads.

No one will deny that our roads are meant for pleasure as well as for business; for the development of social intercourse; for increasing our knowledge of the country districts. They should be made slightly as well as easy to travel over. If this be done, traveling over them will become a pleasure at all seasons of the year. The tide of migration is set toward the cities, where hundreds of thousands are crowded together in unsanitary tenement houses. These should return to the country districts, where they may become producers as well as consumers, at the same time breathing pure air and having healthful employment. There is something decidedly wrong with our economic conditions.

In 1861, 16.1 per cent of our population lived in cities and towns; now between forty and fifty per cent live in the cities. In the ten years from 1890 to 1900, the increase in the population of the United States amounted to 13,110,000, 7,642,000 of whom live in the cities.

Everybody desires the fellowship of his kind; they crave social communication. If this be not obtainable in the country districts, they will remove to the cities and towns. In twenty-five counties, selected from various states, it was found that only one and one-half per cent of the roads were improved. These counties showed an average increase in rural population of 3.112 for each county, during the period of ten years from 1890 to 1900. Twenty-five other counties in the same states, containing forty per cent of improved roads, showed an average increase in rural population, during the same period, of 3.195.

Today there is flowing all over the United States a high tide of good roads. It is timely. We are a progressive nation; so progressive that, in our rapid advance, we have overlooked some of the essential factors of progress, among them the necessity for good roads. We have in the United States 2,155,000 miles of roads, and 100,000 unskilled road overseers, and expend annually for their support, eighty millions of dollars. To account for this expense we have the worst roads to be found in any civilized nation today. We have but few colleges that teach this branch of civil engineering. England, France, Germany, Switzerland and Italy all employ educated men for the building of their roads; and, in some of these countries (France especially) every mile of road is supervised by a man especially educated in the science of road-making. As I said, we are a progressive nation, and some day we shall reach this point, and perhaps advance beyond it; but the time is not yet.

No road is so expensive to maintain as a bad road. Bad roads restrict the benefits to be derived from our schools and churches. Bad roads retard social development. Bad roads drive our people to habitations in unhealthy cities and towns. Bad roads make the cost of maintenance so high that to live at all has become a luxury, scarcely to be indulged in except by the wealthy. The half of our population residing in the country districts is overtaxed to produce enough sustenance for those who live in the cities and towns. Bad roads are wasteful in money and energy. Bad roads are a cruelty to man and the lower animals.

In the state of California we have 46,653 miles of roads, upon which we spend annually the immense sum of $2,157,396.36. 5,843½ miles of these roads are surfaced with gravel; only 419½ miles are surfaced with stone; 2,541½ miles are surfaced with oil.

The amount expended by the state on state roads is only $11,251.

In Orange county we have 482 miles of roads; twenty-five miles of which are surfaced with gravel, and one hundred and twenty-five miles surfaced with oil. In 1909 our county expended upon these roads the sum of $83,094.85. During the last ten years there has been expended upon them the sum of $468,429.34, with a further sum taken from the general fund during the first seven years of this period. Of this amount I have no account, but the total expenditure during that time, probably amounts to about five hundred thousand dollars.

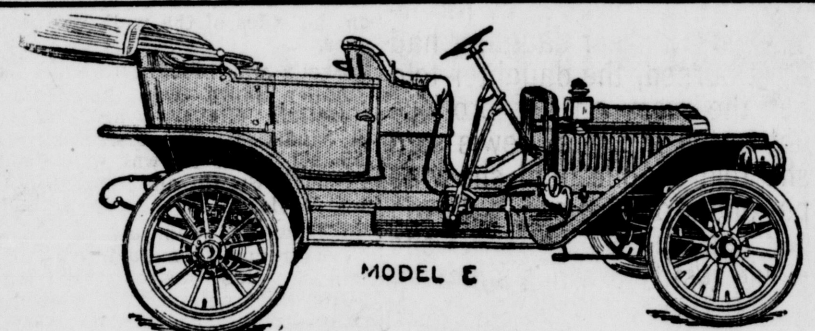

Are our roads in any better condition than they were ten years ago? Many of the bridges in the county need to be rebuilt. If the condition of the roads and bridges have not improved, then our money has been wasted on patch-work.

Now, do not blame your supervisor for failing to do what he cannot do with the money at his command. Be square with him and expect him to be square with you. Why not vote bonds to raise enough money to put the main roads of the county in proper condition, and then give the supervisors enough money to keep them so, and then see that they do it. You have had several supervisors within ten years. Surely they were not all bad.

The farmer, above all the other residents, needs good roads.

The average cost of hauling a ton of produce one mile in the good roads countries, for example, Germany, France and England, is from seven and a half to ten cents. In the United States the average cost of the same weight, for the same distance, is twenty-five cents.

The average haul in the United States is 9.4 miles. The total average cost of delivering the crops is $572,330,000 per annum. Estimating the cotton mile haul, under the present condition of our roads, at twenty-five cents, and the same haul, under good roads conditions, at ten cents, it follows that we should save the sum of $387,758,000 annually, by construct-

30 h. p., 4½ bore, 4½ stroke, 106 inch wheel base, 32x4 wheels, selective type transmission; with magneto, gas lamps and tools, $1550.00 f. o. b. Orange.

This model has the same construction as all Buick models; overhead valves, and the celebrated Buick oiling system. It has been demonstrated in speed and hill climbing contests that Buick motors will develop from 15 to 30 per cent more power than any other motor of the same size. We do not ask you to take our word for it, but we do want you to try the Buick and compare for your self.

ing good roads. At this rate it would not take many years to save the amount necessary to build the good roads. I have the statistics that show the amount of produce raised in this county, but desired to have the assistance of some persons and firms interested in the matter, and competent to make the calculation, to estimate the length of haul and the cost thereof per mile. Therefore I applied to the Irvine Company, the Olive Milling Company, the Santa Ana Commercial Company, the citrus fruit packers, etc. From their replies I have determined that the average haul is about six miles, and the average cost about fifteen cents per ton per mile. Persons engaged in handling these products were consulted regarding the saving to be attained, and the consensus of their estimates was that about fifty per cent would be saved by the construction and maintenance of good roads. According to this estimate, we would save annually on alfalfa hay, $8,134; on grain hay, $13,718; on cabbage and cauliflower, $3,000; on celery about $3,000, etc. We would save, on the actual expense of hauling the larger products, including oranges and lemons, beans, grain, potatoes and sugar beets, about $78,000, which, with other products, would bring the amount saved to fully $100,000. Tomatoes, 1,088,000 pounds; wool, 490,500 pounds; butter, 130,000 pounds; lemons, 68,264 boxes; oranges 1,215,420 boxes; Irish potatoes, 27,996 tons; sweet potatoes, 30,441 tons; apricots, 1410 tons; beans, 285,000 tons; walnuts, 8,724,000 pounds.

Oranges and lemons, I estimate, over the present roads, at eighty boxes to a load, two and a half cents per box; over good roads, one hundred to one hundred and twenty-five boxes could be hauled at about half the price per box. Since this is a county adapted to intensive farming, and it will surely come to that more each year, the small farm produces more small and citrus fruits, which must be delivered carefully in order to prevent bruising and being spoiled by the dust. And it is only a matter of a very few years when our large areas will be divided into small holdings, and that is why the good roads are more needed here.

In every district where good roads bonds have been sold, and the roads improved, the land values have doubled in one year, and in some instances have quadrupled. Not only have land values been increased but production has been made less expensive, living more healthful, the state of society better. The people who brought this about have been rewarded financially, socially, physically, morally and mentally. This improvement surely will bring with it better education, in polytechnic, agricultural and horticultural schools.

To the hundred thousand dollars that our county would save in the delivery of its products, may be added the sum of $13,037,047, which is the present value of our rural estate, outside of the cities and towns, exclusive of improvements. These statements regarding the increased value of country property have been verified by actual experience in various states and counties, the statistics of which I have in my possession.

More than one hundred thousand tourists visit Southern California annually, and they all spend money. Do we get our share of it? We raise food for them; we have fine beach resorts; we have as fine a park as any of the counties of the South; we have a country beautiful to see, and it has an intrinsic value back of it, too, which some of the other counties have not. Why do we not see more of these visitors, and why don't they see us? You know that while we are registered as a good roads county, we must be one in order to make people believe it; you can fool them only once; if they find that they have been deceived, they will not return, but will go to some other place.

I have received some very interesting letters from the beach towns, and would like to present them here, but that it would make these papers too tedious. These letters show that we may add several more thousands of dollars to the credit side of Good Roads. Bay City, which is the gateway of this county from Long Beach, has from thirty to forty automobile visitors daily. From four to five persons to each of these machines means over two hundred visitors daily to the county, 73,000 annually, and we would have them, if only we had decent roads.

There may be a few objections made to the bonding proposition; but we all know that this is the only way to raise a sufficient amount of money at one time. One objection made to the bonds is that our posterity will have to pay them. But why should it not, when it will reap the benefit of them?

Some of our farmers object to the construction of good roads because they believe that they will solely or chiefly benefit the owners of automobiles, which is evidently a mistake. Automobiles are with us to stay, and the speed laws will be enforced when we have good roads as much as they would be without them. And when our roads are better and wider, road rights will not be so much of a contested question. Then there will be an opportunity for teams and automobiles to meet and pass each other without frightening the horses, or endangering the automobiles on rough or soft road sides. Then the antagonism now existing between the drivers of teams and automobiles will begin to decrease, and it will not do so until then.

I am in favor of petitioning the Board of Supervisors to purchase motorcycles, equipped with speedometers to be mounted by plain-clothes deputies, to run down and pass each other the speed maniacs that infest our roads. When we get the good roads this method will be as necessary as it is now, and we might as well begin it now. The sooner it is done the better it will be.

FEELS CERTAIN OF GETTING FACTORY

Anaheim Expects Building of Plant to Begin Inside of Ninety Days*

RAILROAD PART OF PLANS AFOOT

Pulp Disposal to be Solved by Putting in a $200,000
Plant

Anaheim Gazette: The work upon the proposed new sugar factory will be in progress inside of 90 days, and that a line of electric railway will be in course of construction before the year is out, is the opinion held in well informed circles among those who are keeping in touch with these enterprises. The electric line is an essential to the success of the sugar factory. It will haul beets in from the west country, and will in all probability diverge from the main line at a point near Cypress. The line will come direct to this city, and branch north to the site of the factory. The line will also in all probability be extended from Cypress westward to Bay City, as between these two points lie thousands of fertile acres where the beets of superior excellence are to be grown.

This line will in all probability be the route followed by the road on its way to the upper valley. At Corona two thousand acres are read to sign up for beets.

The committee in charge of soliciting stock subscriptions reports an enthusiasm among the people that augers well for the success of the enterprise. The factory projectors desire that $150,000 in stock be subscribed, more for the moral support of the community than for the actual amount of cash involved. While Santa Ana raised upward of $200,000 for its factory two years ago, following a panicky financial situation, and while Anaheim is asked to raise a smaller amount at a time when banks have a plethora of money at easy terms, yet it is known that even if this amount is not altogether subscribed, the factory will be built. Again, it is announced that the entire $150,000 of stock subscription can be sold in Los Angeles in a day, for sugar stock is the most desirable on the market today.

An option upon 55 acres of land north of town, and adjoining the Santa Fe tracks, will probably be closed next week. This will be the first step in clinching the factory, and there exists no doubt that money will be subscribed in sufficient quantity to close the deal. This done, there will remain nothing except to begin work upon the building, which, it is thought, will be in progress by July 1st or soon thereafter. With work upon the factory actually in progress will come procuring contracts for beets and the means of hauling them in. The Pacific Electric company has had the matter before it for several months, and has decided to build to the factory as soon as right of way matters can be settled. Col. Pillsbury at first favored a site south of Brookhurst, but the New Yorkers insist on the site north of town. These New Yorkers, Charles Warner, C. H. Perkins and A. R. Peck, have been in this locality several times during the past two years. They represent $28,000,000 capital. They own a factory at Lyons, N. Y., which is closed down, on account of a lack of beets, and the best parts of this factory will be moved here. They went over the beet fields of this county last fall, and pronounced them magnificent. In the East an average tonnage of five tons per acre is raised, while the average for Orange county is 15 tons, and some fields produce 20 tons. The Eastern sugar content is from 8 to 12, while at Los Alamitos last year the seasonal average was 20, and the year before 19%. These men have had offers from Imperial to locate their factory there, but a test of the land for beets showed it to be inferior. Orange county offered them what they were looking for, and Anaheim was the site selected.

Mr. Hadsall in speaking of the prospects for a successful sugar factory here, said Orange county is undoubtedly the greatest sugar beet section in the world. Climatic conditions, coupled with richness of soil, combine to produce the richest beets and best tonnage. Imperial valley was tested, and beets raised there lacked in sugar essentials. Warm, sunny days and cool nights form ideal weather conditions, and the rich soil of the valley combines to bring the beet to perfection here.

The factory will cost $850,000. This includes a $200,000 plant for converting pulp into stockfeed. Refuse water will be clarified and used for purposes of irrigation. That sufficient acreage will be obtained is indicated by the fact that Southern California factories operating last year refused acreage, and one sold 6000 tons of beets to another factory.

DR. D. A. MacMULLEN

In the death of Dr. D. A. MacMullen, Orange County loses a citizen of much force in commercial and political affairs. He was an active and successful business man and farmer, and engaged in many development enterprises. As chairman of the Board of Supervisors, he demonstrated thoroughly his executive ability and business capacity.

Dr. MacMullen had his political enemies, as any active, forceful man in public position must have, but even these have always accorded him credit for personal characteristics and qualifications of the highest order.

He also had many friends and staunch adherents, and his social and domestic relations were such as to commend him to the highest consideration of his fellow citizens.

The Register feels that it voices the unanimous sentiment of the community in testifying to the sense of loss that is felt in his death, and extending to his family sincere sympathy.

GLORY BE! AND AMEN!

The woman worker for the Volunteers of America who gave a bunch of Los Angeles hoodlums a detail of their character the other night in the Angel City deserves to be encouraged.

Some time since The Register took occasion to remark upon the fact that some worthless fellows had gotten together and trampled the Stars and Stripes under foot. Well, it was to this gang that the lady above referred to paid her respects, and The Register takes pleasure in yielding to her the palm when it comes to suitably characterizing such people.

"You are the brutes," she began, "who tore your country's flag to shreds and dragged it in the mire. Such low-minded degenerates, who would insult the grand old flag which gives them protection and liberty, would do anything. I cannot say you would stoop, you can't stoop, you are already so low and filthy. Like lineal descendants of Ballam's ass you bray simply and work your chops."

Then she told them of a contractor having appeared at their headquarters and offered them work, and from him they fled as though he were a contagion. It appears that they belong to an order known as the I.W.W., and this she declared to mean, "I won't work."

Then a riot occurred in which a negro boy with a big Bible performed a leading part in protecting the woman from the fury of the gang. It is probable that those who ventured within the negro boy's reach had never before felt the force of the Bible as they did at that time.

Good for the woman, good for the negro boy, good for the good old Bible, and three cheers and a tiger for Old Glory! There is a combination that hoodlums don't like, and it stands every decent citizen in hand to join in with the combination.

FOLLOW TAFT

Are you a Republican? If so, you cannot afford to be a party to accusations against the head of the party, which head of the party is also the head of this great nation. There are certain disgruntled people who failed to get places in the cabinet or to get any of the hundred thousand and more places that are at the disposal of the administration, and some of them are willing to join in with anyone to discredit the administration in the eyes of the nation.

This is not saying that the insurgents are wrong nor that the regulars are wrong. The indications are, however, that neither side is acting right and that both are ready to sacrifice Taft if thereby they can gain an advantage. In his attempts to reconcile them, Taft has had the experience of all peacemakers—both factions have become offended at him, though professing otherwise.

Taft's is the only strictly sane and judicial mind that is being applied to the questions now at issue. This can be easily seen from the manner in which he treats these questions as they come before him. There is in it no buncomb, no appeal to popular prejudice, no play on words and no magnifying of minor points. His is the standpoint of the statesman, rather than that of the politician. He is for guarding the rights of all with special privileges to none, and by all he means all, and not a favored class either rich or poor. On this basis Taft wants to see all questions settled, and they can be settled right in no other way.

It is also worthy of observation that no question can be said to be settled at all until it is settled right, and these squabbles will never settle anything right. If Taft cannot control these fellows in some way they will either do nothing and end in a row, or what they do will be a compromise that will be satisfactory to no one and make "confusion worse confounded." In such a case the G.O.P. will be in the condition of old Mother Hubbard, and it ought to be.

The only salvation now is for the people to follow Taft and notify their members in congress to do the same.

RAILROAD LEGISLATION

Taft says that the man who imagines he knows all about the railroad rate business will find on inquiry that he is the only one in the community who thinks so. For instance, it is easy enough to say that there should be no discrimination in rates, but to incorporate that sentiment into an effective statute is not so easy.

You write a law on the subject and ten to one it will make the matter worse. It is almost sure to do this, except you are an expert on railroad-ing and a lawyer besides. It is like a prohibition ordinance. It takes a lawyer, a saloon keeper and a detective to get up such an ordinance as will stand the test and at the same time do the work of suppressing the liquor traffic. Saloon keepers have learned many foxy ways of getting around legal difficulties, but they are not in the same class with the combined railroads of the country with their specially trained and high-salaried legal advisors. It won't do for any inexperienced hand to tackle that combination, for he is sure to get the worst of it if he does.

Again, even though you should get up the right kind of a bill and present it to congress, you will find plenty of politicians there ready to load it down with fool amendments. One is there by the grace of the railroads and another has been swept into his seat on a high tide of public sentiment that is antagonistic to the railroads. One is interested in inserting a "joker," and the other is interested in demonstrating to his constituents that he is doing something. Both have their amendments and are anxious to have them adopted. Many others are in the same class; they support each other's amendments; and by the time the measure comes up for final passage, if it ever does, it's a Joseph's coat of many colors, and not a rate-regulating bill at all.

This is about the situation at the present time, to the joy of our Democratic friends. If the Republicans, regular and insurgent, are not scared into following the Taft program, the program will wind up that way, and at the same time wind up the usefulness of the G.O.P. for some time to come.

ESHLEMAN A WINNER

John M. Eshleman of Imperial county, who is in the race for nomination as member of the State Board of Railroad Commissioners to succeed Theodore Summerland, the machine's man in the third district, is waging a winning campaign. Eshleman has back of him half a dozen papers where Summerland has one. The only newspaper support Summerland is able to show up to the present time comes from the straight-out Southern Pacific organs. The people of the South are well posted on Eshleman's record in the Legislature three years ago and his splendid services as District Attorney of Imperial county, and to say they like him is putting it mildly. If the primaries were to be held this

AMUSEMENTS

Did Not Turn Them Away

Manager Roberts of the Temple says that he did not turn anyone away from his playhouse during the engagement of the Roosevelt in Africa pictures, but the attendance for the three nights was greater than any Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights for the past nine months, and what is more pleasing to him, is the fact, that families right here in Santa Ana, as well as from nearby towns attended his pretty theatre during the past three nights and "Doc" has made converts of them to his high class style of amusement, it being their first visit to any moving picture show; and they promised that he would see them often.

NOTICE TO VOTERS

Society

Mrs. Will J. Lindsay entertained Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock dinner in honor of Rev. and Mrs. W. L. C. Samson, who started East yesterday, and Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Edmiston of East St. Louis. Mrs. Edmiston is a sister of Mr. Lindsay.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Lindsay entertained at her home on East Third street, in honor of Mrs. James Greer, who leaves on Monday for her home at Monticello, Iowa, after spending the winter here. The afternoon was spent in needlework and conversation. The parlors were decorated with large daisies and anemones. Refreshments were served. Those present with Mrs. Lindsay and Mrs. Greer were Mesdames Mary J. Reed, R. K. Torrens, R. T. Cathcart, J. P. Thompson, G. O. Edmiston and G. N. Greer.

Surprised the Morrows

The cozy new home of the J. G. Morrow's on East Washington avenue was the scene of an invasion last night made by the members of the North Side Sewing Club and their husbands.

In order to find these people at home it had been prearranged that the F.H. McElreys were to spend the evening with them. Accordingly they preceded the rest and were pleasantly enjoying themselves when the merry crowd came in unceremoniously, taking the host and hostess completely by surprise. After the excitement ceased the usual hospitality of these well known people was demonstrated to the fullest degree and everybody felt welcome and at home. Merry conversation interspersed with charades and artistic(?) drawings occupied the time and made the evening pass all too quickly.

Ere the guests departed they deposited the contents of certain peculiar looking parcels upon the dining room table already tastefully arrayed for the host and hostess and the two expected guests. The appetizing luncheon that resulted was greatly enjoyed and after the self-invited guests had wished the Morrows much happiness in their new home they departed, receiving the cordial invitation to come again.

Shower for Miss Garnett

Mrs. Robert Flook was hostess yesterday afternoon to twenty or more of the married friends of Miss Lowell Garnett, some of the time being spent in sewing blue and white carpet rags that will be fashioned into a pretty blue and white rug for one of the rooms in the new home of which Miss Garnett will soon be the mistress.

An interesting amusement was the reading by the bride-to-be of a story that had been written by some one else, and that pertained to her prospective wedding trip. Several blanks occurred in the story and when the reader came to one of these she would wave a magic wand with which she had been provided, she paused and counted ten and presto! the article in harmony with the need of the story was showered upon her by one of the thoughtful guests. It was an exciting little story for Miss Garnett and the surprise of each gift made it one of the best stories she ever read.

Light refreshments completed the happy afternoon.

Altar Society Entertainment

The Altar Society of St. Joseph's church had a successful box social last night at Fraternal Brotherhood Hall. A goodly attendance made the bidding on the boxes very spirited. Geo. W. Young acting as auctioneer. Hot coffee was served with the lufches and a sale of ice cream and cake brought in a generous sum. Punch was served during the evening.

During an excellent program R. R. Shafer and Misses Agnes Rudolph and Florentina Oehlke rendered piano solos. Vocal solos were given by Misses Vida Morrison, Anna Young and Mr. Hefflinger, a basso of Los Angeles. A recitation by Miss Nora Eck and Indian club swinging by Miss Clarice Keefe were also on the program.

The net proceeds of the evening were $75.

Dinner and Whist Party

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Kendall were hosts last night at a pleasant dinner and whist party. The four course dinner was served at 6:30 o'clock with May baskets, filled with candy and salted almonds, as dinner favors. A pretty Maypole was the centerpiece. The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames W. A. Huff, A. J. Padgham, L. J. Carden, Parke Roper, W. E. Winslow.

Commandery Officers Installed

Santa Ana Commandery No. 36 installed as follows last night.

E. H. Luxton, Eminent Commander; W. M. Clayton, Generalissimo; H. A. Wassum, Captain General; H. Clay Kellogg, Senior Warden; F. M. Bruner, Junior Warden; J. W. McCormac, Prelate; Birkett Uttley, Treasurer; S. M. Davis, Recorder; G. P. Hill, Standard Bearer; R. V. Corbett, Sword Bearer; L. F. Harvey, Warden; Geo. E. Robinson, Sentinel; J. S. Wasserman, Organist; U. D. Palmer, First

Guard; C. W. Sheats, Second Guard; W. B. Mason, Third Guard.

Interesting remarks were made by the following Sir Knights: S. M. Davis, J. S. Wilkinson, H. C. Head, A. S. Bradford of Placentia, A. I. Stewart of Fullerton, W. M. Clayton and Col. Coulter, and A. N. Zerman, Master of Santa Ana Lodge 241. The installation ceremonies were conducted by Past Eminent Commanders and Sir Knights Bundy and Ball.

Off for Europe

Col. and Mrs. C. E. Frenca and Miss Ethel French, Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Medlock and Miss Velda Medlock and Mrs. Addison Cole departed this afternoon via the Southern Pacific and its connections for New York where they will take the steamer Carpathia for Naples on the 19th. The party will be joined at New York by H. C. Davies and family who will travel with them over Europe and Great Britain. They will be absent for three or four months and are anticipating a most delightful journey. Their friends are wishing them a most glorious time abroad and a safe return to Santa Ana.

Concert Date Changed

The Santa Ana city band has been called upon to fill an engagement at Orange Friday night. The open air concert to have been given on Fourth street is postponed to Saturday night. An excellent programme is promised.

McClintock-Wagner

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wagoner, 825 Parton street, Wednesday at 3 o'clock, occurred the marriage of their second daughter, Cecil, to Roy McClintock of Fairview Hot Springs. The home was beautified with many pretty flowers. As Miss Jean Stennet began the wedding march the bride and groom, unattended, came in. Rev. H. E. Murkett performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate members of the two families.

The bride was gowned in a blue gray tailored suit and carried a bouquet of carnations and maiden-hair ferns.

Mr. and Mrs. McClintock left for a short wedding trip, expecting to return Saturday.

The friends of both young people expected the marriage, which is the second to take place in the Wagoner home recently. The eldest daughter was married last August.

THE SECRET OUT

"What made my lovely complexion? I do not like to tell, for it was medicine, but the nicest a woman ever took. It was Lane's Family Medicine that did it." This is a pleasant herb tea which acts favorably on the stomach and bowels, purifying the blood and cleansing the skin like magic. It cures headache and backache. Drugists and dealers sell it, 25c.

Obituary Resolutions

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst our friend J. G. Bailey, who was a charter member of our society and a director from that time continuously until his death;

Be It Resolved, That in him we have lost a good and true friend and an earnest co-worker in this Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and shall miss at our meetings his kindly presence and fearless advice and criticism.

He was ever ready to champion the cause of defenseless animals against those who ill-treated them and was stern in rebuking thoughtless and heartless cruelty.

We extend to his grief stricken family our sincerest sympathy and can assure them that his memory will live among us as of one whom it was a pleasure to meet, and one whose place will not be easily filled.

It is further Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of our Society and a copy presented to the family.

FREDERICK STEPHENS,
G. A. WHIDDEN,
Committee on Resolutions.

The above resolutions were adopted at a meeting of the Orange County Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals held on Tuesday, May 10, 1910.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA

If You Have It, Read This Letter—Mi-o-na is Guaranteed

"I was taken last August with a severe stomach trouble. The doctor said it was nervous dyspepsia. I took his treatment four weeks, but did not feel any better. I took everything I heard of. The first day of December, 1908, I got a box of Mi-o-na. I took them that afternoon and the next day and haven't had one bit of pain in my stomach since the 2nd of December. I took five boxes. Feel well now, and sleep good—Mrs. M. E. Maxfield, R. F. D. 2, Avoca, N. Y."

MI-O-NA is surely the best prescription for indigestion ever written. It relieves after dinner distress, belching of gas, foul breath, heartburn, etc., in five minutes.

It is guaranteed to permanently cure indigestion, acute or chronic, or any disease of the stomach or money back.

MI-O-NA stomach tablets are sold by Rowley Drug Co., and leading druggists everywhere at 50 cents a large box.

Ladies' Hand Bags at Greatly Reduced Prices

In looking over our stock of Ladies' Hand Bags preparatory to giving our order for Fall Goods we found we had on hands many desirable styles which, for some reason or other, had not sold. We could not see why they have not sold—nothing the matter with the bags that we can see—qualities are right—and the prices, judging from our cost, are right, too. Yet the fact remains, these worthy bags have not sold. We still have them on hand. The policy of this store has always been, when we have merchandise on hand that will not sell at the price marked, to put a price on it that will sell it. And this is exactly what we have done with these bags.

Bags that were $2.00, $1.50 and $1.00, are now	50c	Bags which were $7.50, $6 and $5.00, are now	$3.75
Bags which were $2.50, $2 and $1.50, are now	$1.00	Bags which were $8.75 and $7.50, are now	$5.00
Bags which were $3.75 and $3.00, are now	$2.00	Bags which were $9.75 and $7.50, are now	$6.25
Bags which were $4.00 and $3.50, are now	$2.50	Bags which were $10 and $9.00 are now	$7.50
		Bags which were $15 and $13.50, are now	$10.00

THE OXYGENATOR

Simply, - Safely, - Surely, - Speedily Restores to Health

Regardless of Kind of Disease, its Severity, Duration or Failure of Previous Systems of Treatment. It Lasts Forever, Without Loss of Force and Without Further Cost Than Its Purchase Price. Natural and Ideal for the Rich or the Poor it is, indeed, a
A ROYAL ROAD TO HEALTH

RHEUMATISM
Rheumatism is poisonous waste—uric acid crystals—clogging in the delicate nerve tissues. These impurities cannot be gotten at with poisonous drugs or surface liniment. Oxygenate the blood and let it dissolve and wash them away to the kidneys for elimination.

CONSTIPATION
Constipation is simply waste matter in the colon and weakened intestinal muscles. Irritating drugs always work havoc in the end. Give the blood life with oxygen. It will wash out the colon, relieve the congestion, and establish a vigorous circulation.

STOMACH
When your stomach is out of order, call red blood to its aid. It will make it churn more vigorously and stimulate the gastric juices. A supply of oxygenated blood to the stomach almost immediately drives off the gases and cures indigestion.

NERVOUS TROUBLE
Your nerves "fly to pieces," are irritable, cause headaches and brain fog, because they need the tingling, thrilling pulse of red oxygenated blood to relieve them of the nerve toxins—poisons—with which they are infested.

COLDS, CATARRH, ETC.
These troubles are due to sluggish, circulation of weak blood, which allows festering secretions and dripping pus to collect in the head cavities and throat faster than they can be removed. Red oxygenated blood is the cure.

LUNGS
When you have plenty of vital, pure blood flowing into all the little cells of the lungs, they are well. Hence the value of fresh air, because it keeps the blood pure with its oxygen. The same oxygen can be obtained with the Oxygenator.

THE APPEARANCE OF THE OXYGENATOR DOES NOT BETRAY OR EVEN SUGGEST ITS WONDERFUL MERIT

THE OXYGENATOR CHARGES THE BLOOD WITH OXYGEN
Red, pure blood is the supreme, sustaining, vitalizing element in the body. When the blood is red and full of life, it goes rushing and rippling from the tips of the fingers to the ends of the toes. Attacking the small, waste, poisonous odds and ends that are always accumulating in the body, it washes them away as the spring rain removes the refuse of winter.

To be thus red and alive, to be thus actively distributing health and vigor, the blood must be plentifully supplied with that life-giving element—Oxygen.

If you are to be well, your blood must have oxygen. Any honest doctor will tell you it cannot be given as a drug or medicine. The only successful method ever discovered of oxygenating the blood is the Oxygenator. The minute it is put in operation, the body becomes at once a strong attractor for the free oxygen which abounds in the air about us. Drawn into the body through the 3,000,000 pores of the skin, the blood is fairly charged with oxygen. Impurities are burned up, clogged tissues flushed out, and every part of the body given a thorough cleaning until complete health and vigor is the result.

In thousands of cases, health has been restored to those afflicted with all manner of disease. Many had been declared incurable. You can convince yourself of the reality of these cures by writing us for our monthly magazine "The Searchlight" which always contains the records of a number of the latest cases. We will also send you our beautiful 72 page book in colors—"Oxypathy" which fully explains all about the Oxygenator.

Send for it today. Or better still, call at our office so that we can talk over your ailment with you in person.

The Oxygenator is in use almost everywhere—East, West, North and South. It has cured and is curing people of all manner of ailments. Hundreds of people in Santa Ana and Orange county have been and are being cured by it and will verify every claim we make. Why will you continue to suffer when the Oxygenator is sold upon such easy terms that no one need remain in ill health? Why not investigate today?

IMMIGRATION HEAD IS CHARGED BY SUBORDINATE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—Charges involving the administration of the San Francisco Immigration Bureau have been filed against Immigration Commissioner North by Frank Ainsworth, a subordinate. Ainsworth refused to divulge the nature of the charges. North is absent from the city. It is believed he is enroute to Washington. It was announced at his home that he has gone on a vacation.

The Important Problem

confronting anyone in need of a laxative is not a question of a single action only, but of permanently beneficial effects, which will follow proper efforts to live in a healthful way, with the assistance of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, whenever it is required, as it cleanses the system gently yet promptly, without irritation and will therefore always have the preference of all who wish the best of family laxatives.

The combination has the approval of physicians because it is known to be truly beneficial, and because it has given satisfaction to the millions of well-informed families who have used it for many years past.

To get its beneficial effects, always buy the genuine manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

COMPLAIN OF OPEN DITCH

Fullerton City and A. U. W. Co. Have Nuisance Question to Settle

ANAHEIM, May 12.—A regular meeting of the board of directors of the Anaheim Union Water Co. was held on May 7.

A complaint from S. S. Twombly, that he was not getting as much water as he was entitled to, was referred to the superintendent to settle.

A communication was received from the board of trustees of the city of Fullerton advising of a petition presented to them, asking that the open ditch on West Commonwealth avenue be declared a nuisance, owing to the danger of children falling into it. The trustees requested that the ditch be replaced by a pipe line. The matter was referred to the ditch committee to report at next meeting.

Requests for the purchase of cement from A. L. Porter and C. C. Wagner were, on motion, granted.

A complaint was received from O. H. Schumacher in regard to the waste water that has been damaging his property. Claim was made for the amount of $3325, the alleged damage to crops in November, 1909, and in April, 1910. The matter was referred to the ditch committee to report upon.

Mr. Hadsall, representing Eastern capitalists, who are considering the erection of a sugar factory at Anaheim, appeared before the board and stated that during the operation of their plant they would have a continuous flow of 250 to 300 miners inches of water that could be used for irrigation purposes. After serving its purpose the water would be put through a certain process that would leave it practically clear. Mr. Hadsall wished to know if this company could use the water. No final action was taken on the matter, but he was assured that it could be used if delivered in the condition mentioned, in the daytime, during the months of July, August and September.

MAY RECOVER FROM INJURY

Man Who Met Frightful Accident Has a Chance to Recover

FULLERTON, May 11.—R. E. Ferris, who was seriously injured in an accident on the Columbia lease at the oil wells last Thursday, at which time his entire right arm was torn from his body, is making a wonderful recovery.

At the time of the accident not even the doctors held out the slightest hope that the injured man would recover. The attending physician says that it is little short of marvelous that he did not die from loss of blood, but when the arm was torn from his body the auxiliary vein and artery were so twisted that it stopped the flow of blood.

This coincidence is no doubt responsible for his favorable condition. From the hospital where Mr. Ferris was taken information is given out that if no complications set in his chances for recovery are very good.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Egg receipts were 403 cases on the market yesterday morning. The price on case count declined 1/2 cent a doz. Canned eggs were unchanged in value. The real reason for the decline is not the superabundance, but chiefly the fact that it is impossible to put any of the local eggs in storage. They are weak in texture and will not hold up the required length of time without showing considerable loss of substance as well as quality. This is one of the chief reasons also why it is absolutely essential to import eastern eggs into the market. They being produced in a colder climate are better fitted for storage. The price on best eggs in San Francisco is down to 25 cents. Eastern storage were held at 22 1/2 cents on the market in offerings of the same.

The butter market was active, with heavy sales of creamery extra reported. Jobbing prices as well as others were only steady. The Chicago market is 1 cent lower than that in Los Angeles, and reports indicate further declines possible. San Francisco is selling at 27 cents, 1/2 cent lower than here. Receipts continue very heavy.

SANTA ANANS TO BE THERE

Ocer Made by Santa Fe for Special Service—Big Orange Borrowed

The indications are that a large number of Santa Anans are going to attend San Bernardino's centennial celebration next week. Many are going to journey by automobile to the city that was founded a century ago, and many more will go by train.

The Santa Fe has made an offer to the Merchants & Manufacturers Association and Chamber of Commerce to make special rates for a party of 125 from Santa Ana, any day during the celebration. The rate proposed is $1.50 round trip. Wednesday is the day that seems most acceptable to those who have discussed the matter. The offer is under consideration.

It has been suggested that every automobile that goes from Santa Ana will carry a small (or large) pennant bearing the name of the home town. E. B. Smith, who is going to attend the celebration, and Clyde Walker, secretary of the Santa Ana Automobile Club, talked the matter over this morning with a view to getting concerted action on the part of automobile owners.

The San Bernardino parade committee has requested permission to borrow the big "orange" used by the Elks in the Los Angeles grand lodge parade and which appeared in the last Orange County Carnival of Products parades. It is understood that the float will be shipped to San Bernardino in accordance with the request of the committee.

SALOON KEEPER DIES IN RUNNING PISTOL DUEL

SEATTLE, May 12.—Joe Bonner, manager of the Monte Carlo saloon, is dead today as a result of wounds received in a running pistol duel early today. Wallace A. Russell, aged 25, a real estate dealer, is under arrest charged with the killing of Bonner. Officers have no details of the fight. Russell refused to talk.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrah that Contain Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrah Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrah Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by druggists. Price 75c per bottle.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

"That is a beautiful portrait," said a gentleman who was being conducted over a country mansion by an aged retainer. "Is it an old master?" "Old master?" repeated the retainer. "Why, no, sir. That's the old mis-sus."

Honor in Wall Street.

One would hardly consider the New York Stock Exchange exactly in the light of "a communion of saints." Indeed, to judge by much that appears in the daily papers and the muck raking magazines, this might be the last place to look for the very soul and spirit of integrity. But there it is "in the midst of them." Between members of that marble mansion of trade in securities on New York's famous Broad street no paper writing passes certifying to the binding obligation of a transaction. In the very fiercest rush and maddest vortex of the wild corner a word, a nod, the merest sign, amply suffices. What ever it may lead to—irreparable loss, ruin, bankruptcy, no matter—the deal is closed. I am not professing to be an apologist for whatever crimes may be committed in the name of honor. I simply record the fact, to be easily verified, that the dealings on that exchange are "on honor." The Corinthian fairness of its pillars and entablature front is not shamed by the constant and consistent uprightness of the traffic within.—Christian Register.

A Tragedy in Writing.

Illegible handwriting, which has given rise to so many comedies, led to a tragedy in the case of Bacher, a musical enthusiast of the last century who devoted several years to the composition of a history of Viennese music. His task finished, he submitted the manuscript to the Austrian imperial academy, which he had been led to believe would defray the cost of its publication. After three months his manuscript was returned. Despite their best efforts the members had been unable to decipher it. Bacher then endeavored to have his work copied, but every professional copyist who undertook the task had to confess himself baffled. He thereupon attempted dictating the work, only to find that even he could not decipher it, and, heartbroken at the discovery that his years of toil had proved fruitless, he attempted suicide and finished his days in a lunatic asylum.

Her Cab.

Mary Ann of Lancaster Gate, basement, was having a week off and had arrived back at her little native village in all her metropolitan paint and feathers.

It was a very little native village, and Mary Ann, after her many months' service in town, didn't think so very much of it. Even James, the station porter and her old sweetheart, seemed hopelessly insignificant, and instead of staggering him with the kiss that he expected she looked him up and down, comparing him with a certain gentleman whose acquaintance she had recently made and who wore plush breeches and silk stockings.

"Porter," she said grandly, "do you know if there is a cab here to convey me and my luggage home?" "Well, I don't know about a cab," responded the staggered yokel, "but there's yer mother outside wi' a bar-rer!"—London Scraps.

A Strong Prescription.

Menelik, emperor of Abyssinia, often dabbled in medicine. Some years ago Mme. Stevenin, the wife of a prominent member of the French colony at Addis Abeba, was laid up with fever. Menelik inquired what treatment she was undergoing and expressed disapproval when he learned that she was being dosed with quinine. The following day a messenger called with a large pot of very rancid butter, accompanied by a letter from one of the emperor's secretaries stating that his royal master hoped that madame would take three glasses daily of the butter sent, which had been stored for two years and would be found an infallible remedy. The present was gratefully acknowledged and promptly buried, and when madame recovered Menelik took to himself the credit of her cure.

Effects of Drugs.

Persons employed in India rubber factories sometimes inhale bisulphide of carbon and suffer from frightful dreams of being murdered or of falling over precipices. Opium stimulates imagination; alcohol in excess excites dread and suspicion; hashish, from which the word assassin was derived, produces homicidal mania. These drugs have a distinct effect upon the moral sense. Sometimes, as from alcohol, a coarse and stupid brutality is stimulated, or, as from morphia, a gloomy and morose temper, or, as from cocaine, while the manner remains gentle, the victim develops thieving and lying habits.

Blind Justice.

We meet our philosophical friend and observe that he is smiling contentedly. "What has gone wrong now?" we ask. "Nothing has gone wrong," he explains. "Something went right. Spriggans owed Hennett $10,000 and put his property in his wife's name so that Hennett couldn't collect." "But that isn't anything unusual." "And last night Mrs. Spriggans eloped with Hennett!"—Life.

Uncertainty.

"I am always horribly nervous when I buy a suit of clothes from a strange tailor." "Yes; a person you don't know is hard to stand off."—Houston Post.

A Leading Part.

"My brother has a leading part in that drama." "What part?" "He leads a horse across the stage in the last act."

Some people are born foolish, some acquire foolishness and others thrust their foolishness upon us.—Philadelphia Ledger.
